Fine Horses. Editors Dispatch : Gentlemen,-We fine in every community men of different tastes and pursuits-some are merchants, some doctors, some lawvers, etc.; and while no particular class composes the whole of that community, they each bave an important part to play conducive to the general good. What sort of a city would it be if all were engaged in the same pursuit? Clearly this would not do; but each must strive to so diligently labor in his department that the public welfare will be benefited.

Now, I do not by any means say fine horses are an essential without which we could not exist, but I do say that they are one of those little things which add to the interest of the community in which they are kept. On Tuesday night at the Exchange Hotel a meeting was held by a number of gentlemen interested to see whether or not they could obtain sufficient public support to warrant them in organizing a Gentlemen's Driving Club, having for its object the general improvement of trotting stock, and to so strip trotting races of their now objectionable features that they might when properly managed become a source of public recreation so harakess that none could

A marriage notice in Canada is several degrees worse than the account of a "brilliant wedding" in America. The following was recently printed in the Quebec Chronicle: "Married, on Thursday the 1st of February, at Rathespeck, by the Rev. James Reed, rector of Wexford, Henry Brown, Esq., of Rathjarney county, Wexford, brother of the late Captain Brown, and grandson of the late Lieutenant Brown, R. The Tokio (Japan) Times says: "Mr. Kanda Kohel, recently Gi Kuwan of the Genro In, has been appointed Mombu Shoyu. He was at one period Director of Kai Sei Gakko, and afterwards Rei of the Kai Sei Gakko, and afterwards Rei of the Hioga Ken." We always thought Mr. Kohel would make a good Mombu Shoyu, and we are pleased to hear of his promotion. The Times neglects to state, however, that the gentleman for a short time held the gentle office of Swe Et Po Tai Ti of Nu Je Rse, and was subsequently made President of WOODHOUSE & PARHAM, Kor Norl Oaf Ers of the Pu Bli Ck St Rei Ets .- Norristown Herald.

Somdetch Phra Paramindr Maha Chulalong Korn is all the name the King of Siam is baptismally entitled to. We bayn't the pleasure of Mr. Korn's acquaintance, but we desire to call the reader's attention to the beautiful Renaissance style of architecture of the King's appellation-a sort of four-storied name, with balustrade, battlements, foliations, and crenalated mouldings, and a cellar under the whole, within five minutes' walk of the railway station .-Norristown Herald.

Woman's Words advises: "Women attending auction sales should leave their purses at home. The editor had her pocket picked at one one day last week." Women generally lose the contents of their purses at auction sales; but then they generally have a broken-nose tea-pot, a cracked jug, a used-up coffee-mill, or something that way to show for their money—and that is about G as bad as if they had had their pockets picked .- Norristown Herald.

The New York Graphic has analyzed the relative stages of moral depravity in making assaults on another's property, and announces the following result: A spoilation of $1,000,000 is a case of genius; of $100,-000 is shortage; of $50,000 is litigation; of $25,000 is insolvency; $10,000 is irregularity; of $5,000 is defalcation; of $1,000

The news of A. Oakey Hall's arrival in England was singularly misconstrued by a patriotic Englishman, who rushed home in despair and cried out to his wife: "By hokey! All's hover hin Hengland!"
